

Report to Congress on the Process by which Applications for Special Immigrant Visas under Special Immigrant Status for Certain Iraqis Are Processed
Section 1218 (g) of the National Defense Authorization Act of 2014
(P.L.113-66)

The Department of State (State), the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), and other U.S. government departments and agencies involved in the Iraqi Special Immigrant Visa (SIV) program are committed to helping the Iraqi men and women who have taken significant risks to support our military and civilian personnel. The U.S. government has devoted substantial resources to reducing the amount of time required to complete the Iraqi SIV process, authorized under section 1244 of the Refugee Crisis in Iraq Act of 2008, as amended, while still ensuring thorough screening for national security concerns, and we continue to strive for improvements to the process.

How many Iraqi SIVs have been issued in the second quarter (Q2) of Fiscal Year (FY) 2023 (January 1, 2023, to March 31, 2023)?

Iraqi Principal Applicants Issued in Q2	Iraqi Derivative Applicants Issued in Q2	Total Iraqi SIVs Issued in Q2 FY 2023 (January 1, 2023, through March 31, 2023)	Total Iraqi Numbers Used ¹	Remaining SIVs for Iraqi Principal Applicants
13	34	47	2,336	164

¹ Number of visas issued since permanent numbers became available on January 1, 2014.

What efficiency improvements have been made to Iraqi SIV processing?

U.S. Embassy Baghdad continues to work toward restoring full capacity for consular services, following a three-year suspension that resulted from a December 2019 attack on the embassy compound. An entryway damaged during the attack was re-opened in October 2022, and the Consular Section is now offering all services including SIV interviews. Staffing and security constraints, however, still limit the section's capacity.

What is the average U.S. government processing time for Iraqi SIVs and how many cases are processed in that time?

All steps in the Iraqi SIV application process are outlined below and include the current average processing time for all involved U.S. government entities. This statistic captures total U.S. government processing time in calendar days, beginning when the applicant first expresses interest in the program to State's National Visa Center (NVC) and ending with the date of visa issuance at a U.S. embassy or consulate. It does not capture those steps in the SIV process that are outside the control of the U.S. government and that depend solely on the applicant's initiative. Additionally, even within each step below that is identified as under the control of the U.S. government, there may be time – often significant time – spent waiting on applicant or third-party action not attributable to the U.S. government entities involved. Therefore, the average processing time likely overestimates the total processing time attributable to the U.S. government entities involved.

SIV Processing Steps ^{2,3}
Stage	Step	Description	Average processing times in calendar days	Number of Cases Processed
Chief of Mission (COM) application process	1	Applicant submits COM application package to State's NVC. (The deadline for this step was September 30, 2014)	Applicant-controlled	N/A
	2	NVC reviews documents for completeness.	1	51 ⁴
	3	NVC sends completed application package to U.S. Embassy Baghdad.	N/A	N/A ⁵
COM application process	4	U.S. Embassy Baghdad reviews COM application and the COM or COM Designee decides to approve or deny.	N/A	N/A ⁶

² Processing steps are for SIVs authorized under section 1244 of the Refugee Crisis in Iraq Act of 2008, as amended. This applies to Iraqi nationals in the SQ classification.

³ Previous versions of this report listed 14 steps. During the first quarter of FY 2022, Step 5 "U.S. Embassy Baghdad advises NVC if COM application is approved. NVC immediately sends approval letter to applicant. (If any documents reveal that the applicant does not qualify for the program, the COM application is denied.)" was fully automated and no longer requires manual processing. As such, the Department will no longer include information on this step in its reporting.

⁴ This number reflects the number of case reviews conducted by the NVC within the quarter. This number does not include any new cases or appeals. This number includes the number of cases reviewed for people trying to apply, seeking status on old denied cases, seeking general assistance, or misdirected inquiries. This number may be larger than the total number of cases pending at the NVC because an individual case might be reviewed multiple times in a quarter.

⁵ During this quarter, there were no cases completed at this stage.

⁶ The deadline for Iraqi principal applicants to submit new applications for chief of mission approval was September 30, 2014. The Baghdad COM did not receive any new cases or appeals in the current quarter.

⁸ The majority of applicants receive SIV status by going through the process explained in this chart. Applicants who obtain SIV status in the United States apply for adjustment of status from USCIS.

	11	Applicant is interviewed and biometrics are collected by consular officer on the scheduled appointment date. Administrative processing is initiated following the interview. ⁹	N/A	24
	12	The applicant's case undergoes administrative processing.	145	29
Visa issuance to eligible applicants	13	Upon completion of administrative processing, the applicant is instructed to obtain a medical exam. Once the medical exam is completed, the visa is issued if the applicant is eligible. In some cases, the passport will have expired and requires renewal by the applicant.	Applicant-controlled

⁹ Administrative processing may include a variety of security, fraud, or criminal background checks that are required before the visa may be issued.

¹⁰ The statistics in this chart were formerly reported in business days in reports published April 2014 - April 2016. U.S. government processing times do not factor in applicant-controlled steps. Overall processing times are greater than U.S. government processing times.

Why are applications pending longer than nine months?

As of March 31, 2023, most applications for Iraqi SIVs are being processed in fewer than nine months. Certain applications may be pending longer than nine months due to administrative processing (Step 12). Administrative processing often involves rigorous background checks, essential to the integrity of the SIV program and U.S. national security. The current average processing time reflects the fact that one case from 2019, two cases from 2021, and 15 cases from 2022 were closed during the reporting period, while the other eleven cases closed within 52 days. Resolving long-standing cases is essential; however, it leads to an increased average when calculating processing times.

How many SIV applications are pending as of March 31, 2023?

Step 1 – There were no new COM applications submitted by Iraqi principal applicants pending at NVC during this period. The deadline for Iraqis to apply for COM approval was September 30, 2014.

Step 6 – 14 Iraqi principal applicants had a Form I-360 petition pending with USCIS.

Step 10 – There is 1 principal applicant and 4 derivative family members pending scheduling for visa interviews.

Step 12 – Applications for 62 principal applicants and 41 family members were undergoing administrative processing.

How many SIV applicants were interviewed in Q2 of FY 23?

The deadline to submit an application for COM approval was September 30, 2014. There were 24 SIV applicants who, after COM approval, were scheduled for an interview in the second quarter of FY 23.

The following chart shows the number of Iraqi applicants who executed an application for an SIV at a visa interview in the second quarter of FY 23 under section 1244 of the Refugee Crisis in Iraq Act of 2008, as amended, after receiving COM approval:

Month	Principal Applicants	Derivative Family Members	Total
January	5	10	15
February	4	21	25
March	15	34	49
Total	24	65	89

How many denials were there in the Q2 of FY 23?

No principal applicants were deemed unqualified to receive COM approval or had their approval revoked during the second quarter of FY 2023. Applicants whose COM applications are denied or revoked can submit one appeal within 120 days of receiving the denial or revocation letter.

USCIS denied 23 principal applicants' Form I-360 petitions during FY 2023 Q2.

What are the reasons for a COM denial?

Denial of a COM application generally occurs for one or more of the following four reasons:

- Failure to establish employment by or on behalf of the U.S. government. Applications are denied for this reason if the applicant fails to establish qualifying employment. For information on qualifying employment, see the Department of State website at: <https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/us-visas/immigrate/special-immg-visas-iraqis-employed-us-gov.html>.

- Failure to establish at least one year of employment by or on behalf of the U.S. government between March 20, 2003, and September 30, 2013.
- Failure to establish providing faithful and valuable service to the U.S. government. Applications denied for this reason generally have involved cases lacking the requisite positive recommendation or evaluation. In some instances where faithful and valuable service was not confirmed, employment by or on behalf of the U.S. government had been terminated for cause.
- Derogatory information associated with the applicant that is incompatible with the requirements of the SIV program. This reason for denial generally relates to information indicating that the applicant engaged in an unlawful, unethical, criminal, or terrorism-related activity.
